Cotignac

Rewarded "Most Beautiful Village in France" in 2022, Cotignac is known for its 80m high Tuf cliff overlooking the village. A very special aura emanates from this place where the Holy Family made their appearance.

Sillans la Cascade

This picturesque little village, with its warm-coloured façades, offers a lovely walk that will lead you straight to an incredible turquoise blue waterfall, are we still in Provence?

Tourtour

This superb village perched on the peaks of Green Provence will give you an incredible view of the region. You will explore its maze of narrow streets where artists' studios, craft shops and small restaurants will delight you.

Abbaye du Thoronet

Built between 1160 and 1230, this abbey is a treasure of Cistercian architecture. A renowned center for Gregorian chant, the church boasts one of the longest reverberation times in the world (12 seconds), so we recommend a guided tour to experience a few notes in this timeless setting.

Entrecasteaux

With its magnificent 12th-century castle and French-style gardens designed by Le Nôtre, this picturesque little village is well worth a visit. Its old cobbled streets, vaulted passageways, and tall, narrow facades will transport you back to the medieval era.
